NEW TITLES

(Articles prefaced with an asterisk will be abstracted in a subsequent issue of the Journal of Sport History.)

Gittings, D. Sterett. RECOLLECTIONS OF BROOKLANDWOOD TOURNAMENTS, Maryland Historical Magazine, 36 (September, 1941) 278-80.

Gipe, George. YESTERDAY: BEAR WRESTLING TOOK HOLD 100 YEARS AGO, BUT LOST WITH LENA’S REVENGE, Sports Illustrated, (August 30, 1976) S3; (bear wrestling popular as a by-product of a flurry of interest in Greco-Roman wrestling).

*Wallace, Clarence B. THE MORAL INFLUENCES OF COLLEGE LIFE AND TRAINING, South Atlantic Quarterly, 3 (January, 1908) 75-82.

Elliott, Charles. FISHING IN GEORGIA, Georgia Review, 2 (Spring, 1948) 72-78.

Angul, Vince. YESTERDAY: CLYDE’S JULY WAS A POWERFUL TRIP FOR A JOURNEYMAN NAMED VOLLMER. Sports Illustrated, (May 24, 1976), S3 (Clyde Vollmer, outfielder from 1942-54, in July, 1951 with Red Sox had a .731 slugging average and accounted for 40% of the team’s run production that month).

Greenspan, Bud. AS I SAW IT: IT WAS AS A REF THAT UNBEATEN CHAMP BENNY LEONARD MET HIS END IN THE RING, Sports Illustrated, (May 31, 1976), 99-100 (highlights of boxer Benny Leonard’s career woven into an account of the night he refereed six bouts and died of a heart attack in the ring).

Packard, George V ANCIENT EXTRAVAGANZA IN THE BLACK FOREST, Sports Illustrated. (October 4, 1976), 80-97 (re-enactment by German hunters of a fall ritual dating back to Charlemagne).
Kraft, Virginia. A BEAR IN A BULL MARKET, Sports Illustrated, (September 27, 1976) 54-57 (Fred Bear, archer since 1927 and developer of the glass bow).