SELEE OUT OF IT.

The Chicago Manager Billed For a Long Rest.

Special to "Sporting Life." Chicago, Aug. 1.—Suffering ill health that may lead to permanent retirement from base ball, Frank G. Selee, manager of the Chicago National League Club, on Saturday asked for, and obtained from James A. Hart, president of the club, an indefinite leave of absence.

AMERICAN LEAGUE NOTES.

Manager Armour is said to be scouting in Illinois for young talent. McIntyre has improved in his fielding and is starting his hitting movements again.

Stone, of the St. Louis team, was the first American Leaguer to make a hundred hits. How the bat does ring when Huelsman meets the ball. It has the Lajole sound sure enough.

Dave Fultz makes as many sensational plays as any outfielder and more than most of them. Jimmy Collins at last has come to the conclusion that he must reconstruct his Boston team.

Rumor has it that Comiskey and Holmes are on the outs and that "Ducky" will soon receive his conge.

The veteran catcher Charley Farrell has been released by Boston. He expects now to retire permanently. Tim Murnane rises to remark that the Clevelanders, though winning, are playing far from pennant ball.

Clarke Griffith is so well pleased with Dr. Powers' work that he will endeavor to obtain the backstop permanently. Detroit papers say that both pitcher Hughes and catcher Kittridge are anxious to leave Washington and join Detroit.

Armbruster, the Boston's new catcher, has made a hit with Manager Collins. He will be used frequently behind the bat. The Washington big four—Hickman, Anderson, Huelsman and Stahl—look very strong when they come to the bat in rotation.

George Stone has batted safely for St. Louis in nearly every game this season. His output of safeties includes many extra base hits. President Johnson, having seen his new umpire, Connor, perform, pronounces him one of the best indicator-handlers he has ever seen.

The Detroit critics say that the young first baseman, Lindsay, is showing up better every day. If he keeps up the present clip, he will make good. Since his appointment as acting manager of the Cleveland team Bill Bradley has recovered his batting eye, and is now swatting the leather as of yore.

The Detroit Club has purchased for September delivery two Iowa League pitchers named Joseph Eubank, of Ft. Dodge, and Geo. Disch, of Marshalltown.

Although a number of the baseball wise ones think the Highlanders are out of it, several bets have been made in the West that Griffith's team finishes one, two, three. Orth accomplished a most remarkable performance July 3, 7 and 18, shutting out the Athletics, Washington and Cleveland in succession. Not at all bad for an "old man."

Charley Snyder says a needle in a straw stack is just as easy to find as a major league ball player in the minor leagues. Finding a good one is a great game of chance. The Athletics are universally regarded as a hard-hitting aggregation, but at present there is not a player on the team that has a .300 mark to show for his efforts in the swatting line.

Joe Vila to Horace Fogel: "Anybody who objects to a team in a crippled condition borrowing a player, as Griffith borrowed Mike Powers, is going a long way out of his way to find fault."

President John I. Taylor, of the Boston Club, has announced that his team will play the Boston Nationals a post-season series if the Collins team does not win the American League pennant.

Manager Griffith, of New York, is reported as being after Holly, the New Orleans shortstop. Holly is regarded as the best shortstop in the Southern League, being good in all departments.

Manager Griffith, of New York, is trying out a new first baseman named Fred Curtis, whom he secured from the Sault Ste. Marie Club, of the Copper Country League. He is said to be most promising.

Charley Jones, of Washington, is laying off on account of an injured foot, and Hunter Hill is again down with the malaria. Ban Johnson, Collins and Lajoie all pronounce Jones the find of the American League season.

Charley Starr, an Ohio boy, is covering second base for St. Louis in place of Rockenfield, who has a case of yellow jaundice. Starr is the fifth man to be used at the key-stone station by the Browns this year.

Umpire Frank O'Loughlin was married at Rochester July 29 to Miss Agnes Swift, a member of one of Rochester's first families. The happy couple spent a week in Philadelphia and Atlantic City until July 29, when the umpire reported at Washington for another round of duty.

Dick Padden will rejoin the St. Louis team within the next few days, but Dick is not going back to play ball. Padden is the official scout of the Browns in the minor leagues, and from now until the end of the season he will cruise around looking over the 1905 crop of youngsters.

Pitcher Walter Clarkson, of the New Yorks, went to Cambridge, Mass., July 24 and was married at Shepard Memorial Church to Miss Frances Gillis, daughter of a real estate man in Winthrop, Mass. Neither bride nor groom had an attendant. Rev. Alexander P. Bourne read the marriage service.

The Boston Club has purchased pitcher Joe Harris and catcher Robert A. Peterson, of the Fall River team for September delivery. Peterson jumped the Fall River reserves this year to go to Harrisburg with Billy Hamilton. He is a resident of Philadelphia and was regarded as the best catcher in the New England League last season. At present he is out of the game on account of a lame shoulder.

A DOMINIE'S NOTION.

Wants Umpires in Grand Stand at Professional Games.

Boston, July 25.—Rev. Charles A. Crane, pastor of People's Temple, on Columbus avenue, is out today in a letter declaring for "reform" in base ball. It's all about the poor umpire. Mr. Crane insists that umpires should be legislated into the grand stand, where they can really "see" the difficult and intricate plays in the field. Also—but Mr. Crane does not point out this fact—the placing of the umpire in the grand stand would more easily enable a wrought-up public to seize him fiercely by the neck and cast him forth. Further, Mr. Crane advocates this change for moral reasons, declaring: "If we could have all the umpires sit in the grandstand we would discover that they would never be called robbers, oil magnates or other terms less elegant."
