News Notes.

Lowell lacks twirlers that can stick it out to the finish. Worcester has replaced Fall River as a drawing card in the whaling city. Morrissey is one of the coolest pitchers in a tight place in the whole league.

Gene Gokery, who was passed up by Lake last spring, has signed with Fall River. Barberich, Lawrence's capable slab artist, formerly played in the Northern League.

New Bedford has on a winning streak. People are beginning to take notice of one Canavan. Fred Lake is said to be thinking seriously of transferring from the Spindle City to Salem.

Manager McDermott has released Leonard and Redding, youngsters that he was trying out. Simmy Murch comes pretty near being one of the most valuable all-around men in the league.

Things are breaking bad for Fred Lake for the first time since he has been a member of the New England League. Scully, Cobb and Smythe, members of Fred Lake's Lowell team, are all said to be college men. Cobb and Scully look good.

Captain Nate Pulsifer of the Haverhills, thinks the present New England League staff of umpires the best the league ever had. McDonald, of Haverhill, is considered the best first baseman in the league by the Haverhill fans. Where does Biggie come in? asks the Lawrence "Eagle."

According to the Fall River "Globe," for a catcher, Gorton, of Worcester, is pretty spy in the outfield, and has a good eye in traveling after long drives. Jimmie Canavan has rounded his New Bedford team into shape until now it is making a bid for first money. Canavan is a wise boy, with a fine record for winners.

Haverhill has one of the most promising youngsters in the league in right fielder Madden. He is a Pennsylvanian, is a left-hander and is very quick in the field and on the bases. Pastor's opportune hitting and fielding stamp him as the best shortstop in this league. It has always been a toss-up as to whether the premier short fielder in the league was Tony or Moorehead.

Phenom Smith picked up a good man in Barberich for the Lawrence management. He has pitched fine ball so far and would be a good man when it comes to the fight at the close of the season. If Worcester continues to be the success it has been so far for Messrs. Burckett and Doe, the latter will give Harry Pulliam a close race for swell dressing. The Count has engaged a foreign tailor.
