News Notes.

Catcher Tom Raub is throwing to second in great style this year.

Buckenberger's bunch play good ball but are very weak with the stick.

Buffalo has settled Los Angeles' claim on pitcher Tozier by paying $1000 for that player.

The Toronto management has turned down an offer of $1500 from Boston for first baseman Flynn.

The Toronto Club has been a great drawing card on the road. They've done great business all over the circuit.

Infielder Ralph Edwards, released by Montreal, can be addressed at 1214 Ogden avenue, High Bridge, N. Y.

One claim that Jimmy Bannan makes for his Montreal team is that all the players can fill in at any place on the team.

Until Manager Barrow lands a good backstop and a fast, gingers second baseman, the Torontos will not get out of last place.

Lon Wiltsie, who jumped Baltimore for the Tri-State League last season, has quit pitching, and is playing first base for Johnstown.

Fred Burchell, Del Mason and Doctor Adkins are doing the bulk of the box work for Baltimore, as Harley McNeal has yet to recover form.

Pitcher McCarthy, formerly with Concord, N. H., and last season with Montreal, has been suspended by Toronto, owing to lack of condition.

Jack Cronin, the husky Providence pitcher, is displaying form similar to last season, when he was such a big aid to the Grays in winning the pennant.

Frank Carroll still refuses to report with Providence. He is playing with the Burlington Club and continues his good work, getting two hits in about every game.

Pitcher Keefe, of the Montreals, who was recently operated on for appendicitis, is improving steadily, but he is not expected to pitch again for at least a month.

There is a pretty well defined rumor that this is Hugh Jennings' last year at Baltimore. It is said that he is to retire from base ball altogether and devote his time to the practice of law.

President Taylor on July 18 announced that he had lined player Thoney, of Toronto, $25, and Player Flynn, of the same club, $50, and suspended the latter for assaulting Umpire Kerin, at Montreal on July 13.

which caused his retirement from the major league, is working in good shape.

Though Montreal's pitching staff is in bad shape, the Royals are doing well. Keefe and Matern are sick, and Whalen has a very sore arm. Then Jack Pappalau is not feeling well and cannot do his best work.

Jimmy O'Brien, the former Rochester infielder secured by Toronto, has been installed as the regular shortstop and captain of Barrow's team. He was secured from Rochester in exchange for infielder Grubb and a cash consideration.

When "Humpy" Badel was playing with Buffalo on the spring trip Ned Hanlon was anxious to get him for the Cincinnati team and offered $4000 for him. Stallings refused the offer. During a recent illness Stallings paid Badel's doctor bills, only to have the player jump to the outlaws.

Foster, of the Newark, who was protected for that club by the Athletics last season, leads the Eastern League in batting with a percentage of .343. Brodie has hit for .326; Wood, of Buffalo, .318; Hearne, of Baltimore, .316; Mowrey, of Baltimore, .308; Smith, of Buffalo, .309. These are the only .300 men in the league.
