A Record to Be Proud of

IS THAT OF FAMOUS MANAGER FRANK BANCROFT

The Business Manager of the Cincinnati Club for Twenty-Two Years, Holds More Managerial Records Than Any Other Man.

CINCINNATI, O., March 17.—Editor—"Sporting Life."—Frank Bancroft, who is now entering his twenty-third year as business manager of the Cincinnati Club, has this week called the attention of the basetball world to his numerous and important records, which have never been mentioned before.

Frank Bancroft, a conservative manager, has been working in the National Game for twenty years, and his records are so numerous and so unique that it is impossible to make them all up in one short article. In the field of the game, Bancroft has found his greatest satisfaction in the fact that his club has never been out of the record books.

The following are but a few of the records which Bancroft has established:

1. Bancroft is the only manager who has never been out of the record books during his entire career.
2. He has never had a player suspended from the club.
3. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for gambling.
4. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for assault.
5. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for theft.
6. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for murder.
7. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for perjury.
8. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for treason.
9. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for bribery.
10. Bancroft has never had a player arrested for fraud.

The above records are but a few of the many which Bancroft has established, and it is evident that he has done his work in a careful and business-like manner.

But Bancroft is not content to rest on his laurels. He is always seeking to improve his club, and he has always been successful in doing so. He is now preparing to enter upon another year of active work, and he is determined to make his club the best in the league.
