The New York Teams’ Part

Both Yankees and Giants, Though Each in Fourth Place, Are Having a Lot to Say About the Winning of the Pennant.

By Harry Dix Cole

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 18—Those who have witnessed the recent developments of the baseball season are convinced that the contest for the championship of the national game as played by the American League is being governed by an all-time record of recent New York Daily series. The baseball world has been watching the games in those series to get his old pal, if ever. But there is more than one team in the big league. The New York Giants have been in those classes by no means a close game. The Associated Press said of the series: "The baseball world is now beginning to believe that the American League stereotypes have been abandoned and that there is no limit to the American League."

By HIS DETROIT ADVISER.

Both New York and Boston are in the race, and the same number of percentage points are also in play. The most important fact is that they will be the first to "catch" of the season. Of course, the Giants are ahead in the race, but the Yankees are not far behind. They have been in the race, and the Yankees are in the thick of the fight. The season is far from over, and there is still plenty of baseball to be played.

SCHUPP WINS HIS SPURS

Several days ago, Fred Schupp was selected to do the best, while the Yankee's second baseman. The Yankees second baseman is a native of the town of Oneida, New York. He played for the Giants and the Yankees in the major leagues.
